Foreword

Dear Colleagues, Honorable Members of Parliament and readers,

As I reminisce on the countdown to the 2016 election and take a moment to reflect on the past parliamentary year 2016-2017, I can say that several accomplishments were nevertheless achieved.

Parliamentary years run from the second Tuesday in September through the second Monday of September of the following year. Hence this year opened on Tuesday, September 13, 2016. This immediately brings us to the first challenge that Parliament encountered this parliamentary year. The parliamentary year started only 13 days before the parliamentary election and five weeks before a new Parliament was set to take office. Because of this anomaly, there was no governing policy ready to be presented by the Governor of Sint Maarten during his annual speech at the opening of Parliament.

A few weeks into the new parliamentary year, the installation of Members of Parliament took place and a new Parliament sat on October 31, 2016. Out of the originally fifteen elected Members of Parliament, four resigned to become ministers in December 2016. Consequently Parliament welcomed four new Members of Parliament in January 2017. These changes in the composition of Parliament took place within the first three months of the new parliamentary year.

The transition required the settling in of the new Members of Parliament. An orientation week organized by the secretariat provided a good start for the Members of Parliament. All High Councils of State were invited to participate in this orientation week. The High Councils emphasized their task to assist Parliament in its supervisory role over Government.

The Budget 2017 of Sint Maarten was approved by Parliament on December 16, 2016.

Again, during this Parliamentary year, the emphasis was placed on training of the Secretariat’s staff, as well as reducing the legislative backlog that existed due to legislation that was pending at the time of the dissolution of the Netherlands Antilles. It is also noteworthy to mention that the Government chose to retract several of these draft national ordinances from the former Netherlands Antilles, in March 2017.

Integrity matters were very much at the forefront this Parliamentary year with the rejection of the national ordinance Integrity Chamber by the Constitutional Court on July 7, 2016 and the subsequent action by the Netherlands earlier in 2017. Parliament continued its debate regarding the role and position of Parliament versus the executive branch of Government as well as Parliament’s assessment of its own functioning.

Parliament thanks all organizations that visited and presented their case to the representatives of the people of Sint Maarten, such as the Anti-Poverty Platform and the Independence for St. Maarten Foundation. These dialogues are welcomed by the Parliament of Sint Maarten.

Revision of the Rules of Order is nearing its completion. It has been extensively debated by the faction leaders and will be sent to the Central Committee Meeting for further handling soon.

In this Parliamentary Year, the Presidium of Parliament renewed the lease on the building located on Wilhelmina Street # 1, where Parliament is currently housed. However, discussions regarding a “new” Parliament building are in full swing.

All in all, it has been a rather eventful parliamentary year thus far with high hopes to complete above matters early in the new parliamentary Year.

Respectfully,

Sarah A. Wescot-Williams
President of Parliament

LOGO OF PARLIAMENT

The rising sun indicates a new day full of hope and possibilities.

The Pelican is our national bird and symbol.

According to legend, in a time of famine, a mother pelican would draw blood from her own chest and give the blood to her chicks. Symbolic of sacrifice doing what is best for the nation.

The wings of the Pelican are also a stylized version of people symbolizing the people of Sint Maarten

SEPTEMBER

SEPTEMBER 13, 2016

On the occasion of the opening of Parliamentary Year 2016-2017 a Solemn Public meeting was held. This is an annual occurring event on the second Tuesday in September that marks the beginning of the new parliamentary year. His Excellency the Governor of Sint Maarten, drs. Eugene B. Holiday, delivered his speech to the Members of Parliament, invited guests and the radio and television audience.

In his speech the Governor indicated that the Parliamentary election will be held in 13 days, on September 26, 2016. And as a result the composition of Parliament will change on October 31. A new Council of Ministers will be formed and installed thereafter, based on a majority in the new Parliament. In the interim the Government is to continue to take care of the interest of the people. In view of this transitional reality, His address considered prevailing, domestic, social and economic conditions, the global economic climate and Government's policy programs. His Excellency provided an outline of the policies, challenges, and opportunities for the upcoming year. And in doing so, presented a social and economic framework aimed at fostering continuity in Government anchored in a sound financial foundation. Furthermore the Governor explained that Sint Maarten's economy is expected to expand by about 0.7%, reflecting a slight increase as compared to the 0.5 % in 2015.

The slow growth can in a large part be attributed to domestic political fragility and the tempered economic developments in our main trading partner and tourist market, the United States.

Inflation remains low at 0.3% in 2015 and 1% in 2016. Largely reflecting the low United States inflation and low international energy prices. Meanwhile, the population is growing due to immigration and people are living longer, leading to an aging population, resulting in increased pressure on our social health care and pension systems.

The Governor's discourse was followed by a military parade, as is customary, and a reception. The reception was held at the St. Martin of Tours Parish Hall on the Backstreet and hosted by the President of the Parliament of Sint Maarten the Hon. Sarah A. Wescot- Williams. During the reception the 4th Annual President of Parliament Award was presented to Ms. Rochana Richardson, a 20-year-old young lady who is the hidden force behind the University of St. Martin School of Continuing Education and Lifelong Learning (SCCELL), the business arm of the University of St. Martin (USM). Due to her familiarity with the issues relating to working-class and middle class youths on the island, the SCCELL has been able to empower the ambitious young men and women on this island. The reason why Ms. Richardson was nominated by the USM President, Mr. Francio Guadeloupe is because at the USM they cherish bright minds who dare to be seen in the public spotlight while also doing the nitty-gritty background work. Ms. Richardson does both.

On June 9th and 10th a delegation comprising of Members of the Parliament of Sint Maarten headed by the Hon. President of Parliament Sarah A. Wescot-Williams, attended the 33th General Assembly of the Latin American Parliament (Parlatino) in Panama City, Republic of Panama.

The Assembly started with the raising of the Parlatino flag and singing of the Parlatino anthem. This ceremonial part was followed by several panel discussions on the topic of migration in Latin America and the Caribbean from different angles, titled:

Panel 1 - The Human rights of migrants: “The inclusion and social cohesion, elimination of all forms of discrimination (racism, xenophobia and intolerance)”.

Panel 2 - The Effects of irregular and regular migration: “Decent work, labor mobility, recognition of skills and qualifications”.

Panel 3 - International cooperation and the governance of migration in all its dimensions: “Borders, transit, entry, return, re-admission, integration and reintegration”.

Panel 4 - Illicit trafficking in migrants, trafficking in women, children and youth: “The contemporary forms of slavery, identification, protection and appropriate assistance to migrants and victims of trafficking”.

Panel 5 - The contributions of migrants and diaspora to sustainable development: “Remittances and the transferability of benefits won”.

Panel 6 - Migrations caused by the effects of climate change or crisis: “Successful strategies for protection and assistance, public policies for sustainable development and conflict resolution”,

The keynote speaker at the General Assembly of Parlatino was Mr. Kailash Satyarthi, Nobel Prize winner for his contribution to the development of international conventions on the rights of children. He has waged a peaceful struggle to stop children from being exploited for labor instead of attending school. The main message of his address was to make parliamentarians aware of the fact that they do not only make laws and govern countries, but that they are the custodians of inspirations and dreams. Members of Parliament have to fulfill the dreams for all children and of all men with the laws that they make.

On the 2nd day of the General Assembly several resolutions and declarations were approved including a resolution on the current situation in Venezuela. In this resolution Parlatino calls on the parties in the conflict in Venezuela to engage in dialogue in order to stop violence with the intention to restore the internal development, sustainability and democracy of the battered country.

Tripartite and IPKO

From June 14-16, 2017 delegations from the Parliaments of the Netherlands, Curaçao, Aruba and Sint Maarten met in The Hague, Netherlands for the Interparliamentary Kingdom Consultations (IPKO).

Topics such as climate change and energy, youth, education, economic opportunities within the Kingdom, health care, discrimination and integrity were discussed and information was exchanged on these topics by the four parliamentary delegations. Furthermore the delegations informed one another about the state of affairs of the execution of the Paris Agreement and the latest developments surrounding the fast ferry connections between the islands. The delegations also agreed that they would request their Governments to organize a conference on Education similar to the Health Care Conference organized in 2015 and 2017 in Aruba to discuss several issues in the educational systems of the countries within the Kingdom. The delegations expressed their concerns about the situation in Venezuela and the tangible consequences that are already being felt in especially Aruba and Curaçao but also Bonaire in the form of the increase in migration flow, crime and prostitution. The delegations agreed to keep a close eye on the situation and to request an update from the Governments and Kingdom Government. The Dispute regulation was also on the agenda of the IPKO. It is expected that the Kingdom Council of State will give its advice soon on the draft Dispute regulation as submitted by the Kingdom Government. Once the Kingdom Government officially submits the draft to the Second Chamber, the Parliaments of the Caribbean parts of the Kingdom will have the opportunity to give their input on the draft by making use of the rights as provided by the Kingdom Charter.

The topic Ideal Kingdom 2040 is a relatively new topic on the IPKO agenda. It was first introduced in January 2017 and was further elaborated on in this last IPKO. The delegations concluded that there are strengths such as rule of law, joint history, mutual cooperation and Kingdom Charter but also weakness such as difference in size, cultural differences and insufficient mutual understanding, within the Kingdom. The delegations identified threats such as disintegration and Kingdom structure as well as opportunities such as mutual cooperation and exchange of expertise, within the Kingdom.

The program included a meeting with representatives of the BES islands (Bonaire, Statia and Saba) on the matter of embedding these islands in the Dutch Constitution amongst others as well as several work visits.

The Interparliamentary consultations concluded on Friday June 16, 2017 with the adoption and signing of the Agreement List and a joint press conference of the four delegations.

Prior to the start of the Interparliamentary consultations, on June 12, 2017, the delegation of Sint Maarten participated in the Tripartite meeting along with delegations from sister islands of Curaçao and Aruba. Among the topics that were discussed were Integrity Chamber, Academy for Legislation, Security, Ministerial Cooperation as well as several IPKO topics.
